No chance of meeting representatives of Kabul administration in Abu Dhabi

in Statements December 18, 2018 127 Views

Serious discussions have been taking place over the past two days in the United Arab Emirates between representatives of the Islamic Emirate and United States about ending the occupation.

These talks are also being attended by representatives of some other nations.

But various officials of the Kabul administration have consistently and groundlessly been asserting since yesterday that their delegation will hold a meeting with the representatives of the Islamic Emirate during this gathering.

We once again reject these reports. Discussions are taking place with the representatives of the United States about ending the occupation, a matter that does not concern the Kabul administration whatsoever. The entire agenda is focused on issues concerning the occupiers and talks will exclusively be held with them.

Our countrymen should not pay any heed to the rumors and speculations of various Kabul administration officials and organs. Media should also refrain from propaganda by taking our views into consideration before publishing any reports.

Spokesman of Islamic Emirate of Afghanistan
