

Clarification regarding current round of talks

د افغانستان اسلامي امارت

The current round of talks in Doha are advancing on a step-by-step basis. As the issue at hand is immensely crucial and delicate, its progression is taking place with that much care and vigilance. The talks during January saw an agreement regarding withdrawal of occupying forces and preventing Afghanistan from being used against others, but this round of talks are about the details and nature of these two issues.

It should be mentioned that no understanding has so far been reached about any agreement or document.

The above issues mentioned is the truth and current situation, all other rumors and predictions are baseless.
