

The First Report:

Name (Nickname): Yasin al Kurdi

Nationality: Syrian Kurd

Age: 24 years old

Marital Status: Single

Former Occupation:

Current Occupation: with our brother Abdullah Khan, and, particularly, connecting Abdullah's lines with Iran and bringing brothers from abroad.

Jihadi history: 5 years

Studies or specialties:

The official's report:

He is obedient, ethical, active, ambitious, athletic, bold, brave, and has some acceptable studiousness and psychological stability. The thing that does not raise him to a leadership level is his young age and his jokes are a bit too much. His military experience is somewhat mediocre, and he tends toward administrative works. His theological/religious knowledge is normal, and he has the patience to perform administrative duties.

He has traveled abroad when he was working with Hamza Rabi', God rest his soul, to Iran to open lines with Iran and Turkey to plan to bring more new brothers to the field. He has proved his success praise be to God. After the killing of Hamza Rabi', he was assigned to Abdullah Khan and we expect him to be someone in the future. This matter just needs some patience and experience.

He means lines of communication

The Second Report:

Name (Nickname): Abu Nasser Al Qahtani

Nationality: Saudi Arabia

Age: 32 years old

Marital Status: Married (his family stayed in Saudi Arabia)

Former Occupation: Nothing (Son of a tribal sheikh)

Current Occupation: field commander inside Khost

Jihadi history: 4.5 years

Studies or specialties:

The Official's report:

He has good manners and is obedient, ambitious, and religiously zealous. He enjoys a stable psychological condition and wants all the time to serve the religion and his age is very suitable to his work. His theological/religious level is average.

His fitness level is average because he is overweight. His field problem is that he is too brave that reaches impulsiveness, and this is the only reason for his arrest by the apostates around Khost Airport.

His military level is average technically speaking although he has completed nearly all the military courses several times, but he has a high ability to command in the field.

And, he is not ready for any work in the backlines. He is loved by Arabs and non-Arabs alike, especially after his prison time in Bagram, and his survival with three brothers.

The Third Report

Name (Nickname): Abdul Jalil Al Hijazi

Nationality: Saudi Arabia

Age: 29 years old

Marital Status: Single

Former Occupation: Nothing

Current Occupation: Assistant of Jaafar Al Tayyar in Paktika

Jihadi history: 5 years

Studies or specialties: High School

The Official's report:

He has very good manners, and is cheerful, very obedient, and loves his work. He does not like laziness, and his fitness level is weak despite his stocky figure; but, he has injuries: A broken right hand and a chronic pain in his knee. He was jailed in Kabul at Sayyaf's with Abdullah Azzam and Saif Omar Abdul Rahman for three and half years starting at the events of the downfall. He has the patience while dealing with the youth and is loved by them too. His relations with non-Arabs is very good. His theological/religious level is average.

His military level is average, and we are in the midst of raising it, especially at the winter season, when field work is not much. We have started to give him successive military courses. He loves this field and wants to stay here and is physiologically stable. We are getting him ready to be an alternative to Jaafar Al Tayyar in the area.

The Fourth Report

Name (Nickname): Abdullah Azzam

Nationality: Saudi Arabia

Age: 23 years old

Marital Status: Single

Former Occupation: A policeman at the navy but did not finish

Current Occupation: Assistant of Sheikh Amir Al Fatah in Arms and ammunitions stores

Jihadi history: 5 years

Studies or specialties: High School

The Official's report:

He has very good manners, and is obedient and has previous experience in jail at Sayyaf's with Abdel Jalil and Saif Omar Abdel Rahman. He is theological/religious level is average.

His military level is average, and we are trying to develop it, but his mental abilities is average or nothing.

His fitness level is somewhat weak because of several non-apparent chronic diseases. He tends toward administrative duties and likes to go the lines. We cannot develop him further than Assistant store official. He and Brother Abdel Jalil are a good administrative team. His psychological condition is stable and likes to stay in this field.

The Fifth Report

Name (Nickname): Hamza Al Rashed

Nationality: Egyptian

Age: 27 years old

Marital Status: Married and divorced before coming to jihad

Former Occupation: Clothes deal in Libya and Egypt

Current Occupation: Artillery Trainer specialized in Mortar

Jihadi history: 5 years

Studies or specialties: Trading Diploma

The Official's report:

He has good manners and is somewhat loved by his brothers. He is stubborn a little bit and somewhat obedient. Sometimes, he does what he is convinced of and is not psychologically stable. He thinks of traveling to Iraq sometimes, but calms other times.

His fitness level is very excellent, and he has the patience and endurance during field work.

His theological/religious level is average, and he is a little bit extreme in religious rulings. He goes back to previously agreed upon matter once he gets angry.

His readiness to work here is volatile and is somewhat accepted among his brothers.

He can be developed and can work in the archives because he has a very good handwriting, but his artillery work is much needed and we need him for it. His psychological problems could be because of his need to marry.

The Sixth Report

Name (Nickname): Ghazwan

Nationality: Saudi Arabia

Age: 23 years old

Marital Status: Married before two months approximately

Former Occupation: Student

Current Occupation: in the staff of the Sheikh Al Muhajir

Jihadi history: 5 years

Studies or specialties: High School

The Official's report:

He has very, very good manners and is loved by his brothers and is obedient. His military level is good, but can be developed because he loves electronics and explosives.

He enrolled in a course on remotes manufacturing and got very good grades. He loves explosives and we appointed him with Al Muhajir and he is very studiousness.

His fitness level is average, as he was injured in his knee six months ago during an ambush on the Americans in Paktika. His injury left him unable to walk long distances without pain. His psychological condition is stable and after his marriage is more stable.

His theological/religious level is average, and he likes to read in theology/religion, but he tends more toward military matters and loves this field and wants to stay here. Previously, he wanted to go the Arabian Peninsula for jihad but he has since changed his mind.

Very much accepted by his peer and can be developed in the technical field only. He cannot lead a group or a subgroup, but he is good and is very good in specialty.

The Seventh Report

Name (Nickname): Khalid Al Maghribi

Nationality: Morocco

Age: 30 years old

Marital Status: Married

Former Occupation:

Current Occupation: A group leader in Agbaha

Jihadi history: 4.5 years

Studies or specialties:

The Official's report:

He has good manners, but he is strict in his dealings with his Arab and non-Arab brothers. He always try to advise him and praise be upon God he is changed now. But it comes back and forth. He likes working in the field very much and is very active. His brothers do not like him because of strictness even though his justifications are acceptable. But, the Emir/leader must be patient toward all the wrongs that happen. This is the only thing he is missing.

His military level is excellent technically speaking and acceptable leadership wise. His fitness level is excellent in the summer and weak in the winter, as the cold affects him. His psychological condition is stable and likes this field. He is obedient with his leader, but with some arguments. He has to be convinced before following orders. His theological/religious level is modest and can be developed.

Only his strictness in dealing with others, but he is very clear and smart, and is a lion in the field. He is very organized in his position and takes care of public funds.

The Eighth Report

Name (Nickname): Sufian Al Maghbribi

Nationality: Morocco

Age: 27 years old

Marital Status: Married

Former Occupation: Group commander in the front

Current Occupation:

Jihadi history: 5 years

Studies or specialties:

The official's report:

He has an exceptionally good manner, as he is a memorizer of the Quran and is calm. He has proved his success in his work, as his front was one of the difficult ones.

His military level is good and likes to enroll and take in more military courses and information. He is not only fit to be a trainer and leader of a jihadi group but a commander of a whole area. The latter needs sequencing (seniority) however. Fitness level is excellent.

Psychological condition is very stable, especially after marriage of the daughter of Mohammad Salah God rest his soul. He is obedient and his theological/religious level is excellent in the recitation of the Quran and teaching it to others. As for the rest of the theological/religious stuff, he can be developed if he became free for it. He is willing to work and be patient in this area. He is accepted by his brothers and can be developed in many ways.

The Ninth Report

He has very good manners and is polite and easy. He is psychologically stable and likes to stay and work in this field. His military level is good and can be developed, but he is good in his current work and we need him there. His physical fitness is good and does not have any injuries.

He killed an American and took a picture of himself during an operation in Paktika. He memorizes the Quran and his theological/religious knowledge is good and likes to read in theology.

He is very loved by his brothers, especially non-Arabs and can be developed in many fields. He understands his current job and accepts it.

The Tenth Report

Name (Nickname): Abu Hafs al-Shihri

Nationality: Saudi Arabia

Age: 25 years old

Marital Status: Single and will marry

Former Occupation: Honey trade

Current Occupation: No specific job/work

Jihadi history: 5 years

Studies or specialties: Bachelor's in Arabic language

The official's report:

A kind, good mannered, and generous brother, who is obedient and listens to his brothers and leaders. He want to previously go to the Arabian Peninsula for jihad there, but was convinced to stay here. He is looking into his marriage matter now. This is a good medicine for him. He can be developed very quickly. He is very excellent as a trainer or a group leader or only administrative work. His problem is stability but once he marries, we can benefit from him more. He is the cousin of Osman al-Shihri.

His military level is good and accepted and is smart. He likes to work in explosives and promised us to work at the Sheikh Al Muhajir after his marriage. His physical fitness is excellent and likes to be with anyone from the Arabian Peninsula. His theological/religious knowledge is good and can be developed. He is ready to stay in the area with the condition of marrying/finding a wife. He is loved by his brothers, especially non-Arabs and is calm.

A kind, obedient, and good mannered brother. He tends toward seclusion and likes to read and write poetry and stories of his martyr brothers. His military level is average technical and administrative wise. His physical fitness is good. His psychological condition is good before and after marriage. He is the son of Mohammad Salah God rest his soul. He is obedient and cannot be developed, particularly in the military field. His theological/religious level is average and can be developed. He likes and wants to stay in this area. He does not like to lead and likes to be led. He is loved by his brothers and accepted among non-Arabs and does not like to joke.

The Thirteenth Report

Name (Nickname): Mansour Al Harbi

Nationality: Saudi Arabia

Age: 32 years old

Marital Status: Married

Former Occupation:

Current Occupation: Trainer

Jihadi history: 6 years

Studies or specialties: High School

The official's report:

A good mannered brother. His military level is very excellent and a successful trainer in the courses, especially urban warfare and its implementation. His experiment of leading a group on the front was a failure, as his administrative work is a lot and his results are very few. Therefore, he is good at the training sector, but the problem is not convinced. His physical fitness is very good. His psychological condition is very stable, especially after marriage. He argues sometimes but at the end he listens. He cannot deal with a lot of non-Arabs and his general morals are average. His theological/religious condition is average and is ready stay here forever. He can be developed militarily speaking. I nominate him for the head of training post anywhere. His only problem during his moves is that he is black and very tall.
